

New Zealand Trade Treaty Causes Warm Clashes in House of Commons

CONSERVATIVES INSIST DAIRY BUSINESS HURT

Gov't. Supporters Claim Import of Butter Needed

OTTAWA, Ont., March 12.—Canada's trade agreement with New Zealand was the subject of a fierce battle in the House of Commons today. The Conservative opposition, led by Mr. Bennett, insisted that the treaty would hurt the dairy business. The government, led by Mr. Bennett, claimed that the treaty was necessary to secure a steady supply of butter for the Canadian market.

Keeping Mentally Fit

ANY WAY OF COMPENSATION
compensation is alike a financial or a psychological term. Your pay is compensation insofar as you did not be doing that particular job wholly for the love or the satisfaction of it; to offset this drawback, your check and what it will buy to satisfy your needs and your pleasures is compensation.

Other situations have their compensations in other terms. Liv-

Yet our true superlatives, our latent aptitudes in which we naturally and properly become assets of our endowment, our physical and mental capital, which we put at interest and by which we live, trend of our superlatives sets the trend of endeavor and career. We all have to do what we can do well, for in the heart of the city is noisy, windy, sunless, open to constant noise and interruptions. By way of compensation, it is convenient for services and supplies, accessible to business and pleasure, rich in contacts and possibilities. Living in the suburbs reverses the parts. As you value one or the other set of drawbacks compensations, you make your vice.

But the deeper living by compensation proceeds by way of your qualities, not in terms of your circumstances. Your phalique, though not serving your purpose, is not what you would like it to be; you

Moliere's Dinner at Which His Guests Decided to Drown Themselves

"Gentlemen," he said, "you wish to drown yourselves; very good. Is a splendid idea."

complaint dinner at the home of Moliere, the great French comic dramatist—perhaps the greatest of all comic dramatists—at Auteuil.

It was summer and Moliere's old confidant, Chapelle, appeared again at his villa with a band of soldiers and splendid ideas. My only complaint that you forgot to include me.

He stopped suddenly as the sun transfixed by a solemn thought.

"But, my friends," he went on, "this is a suitable hour for no glorious action. Tomorrow, in Paris, there was bent on a good time. Indeed, he already had fortified themselves a liberal indulgence in the juice of grape.

As soon as Chapelle saw the dramatist he called out jovially, "We have come to dine with you."

"We chose night for motive that we may have the fame we serve, to drown ourselves tomorrow in broad daylight and we are sober?"

"You are welcome," replied Molire Josephically, but after he had ordered a good dinner prepared, he said to Chappelle:

"My friend, I shall have to depend on you to do the honors today. I am well, and so is little Melissa."

Excclamations arose. "He is right he is always right."

"Now, my comrades," said Molire, "go to bed; tomorrow the great feast."

"Yes, tomorrow—tomorrow."

The breakfast bell rang at six o'clock the next morning. The

Of course, as at all such gatherings, serious stage arrived—that stage of morose, maudlin, white-obliged merriment, punctuated by frequent libations.

MAUDLIN: Made foolish drinking liquor; silly, foolish.

"I strikes me," he said, "a luminous thing strikes me. We all agree that life is a stupid thing; why do we not rid ourselves of it? Let us go to the river and drown ourselves!"

In a moment all vacated the dining room and hastened in the dark to the river.

Valedictory Exercises To Be Held at University on March 20

Convocation Draws Near As Students Prepare For Finals

First thoughts of graduation have been brought to the minds of the graduating seniors by the posting of the valedictory exercises to be held on March 20 at 4:45 in Convocation Hall. This is the first official function of the year especially given for the students who will be receiving their degrees at the Convocation of the University to be held in May. Mr. C. W. Wood, valedictorian of the class of 1936, is the valedictorian of the class.

The Theological Club will hold its annual banquet on Thursday, March 13, at half past seven in the dining hall at St. Stephen's College.

Nominations for the agricultural representative on the Students' Convocation, signed by ten students of the Faculty of Agriculture, must be in the hands of the secretary of the Union by Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Joe McGowan gave an interesting talk on "Commercial Agriculture" at a meeting of the Chemical Society and in Wednesday afternoon.

S. T. BIGELOW RESIGNS AS PROSECUTOR

Growing Private Practice is Reason—Police Regretful

Crown Prosecutor S. T. Bigelow placed his resignation in the hands of Hon. J. F. Lymburn, attorney general, on Tuesday. It was revealed today. The resignation was accepted with regret, following an uninterrupted career of sixteen months on the part of Mr. Bigelow as crown prosecutor at the city police court.

Mr. Bigelow does not know who his successor is likely to be, but he stated that his resignation is to take effect at the end of the present month.

Practice Growing

His continually increasing private practice made it necessary for Mr. Bigelow to resign, he stated pointing out that this was the sole reason that

"My relations with every one at court and on the police force have been most cordial," he stated. "Pressure of private practice is the only reason for my resignation."

Mr. Bigelow has only been working as part time prosecutor although his duties at police court have been ex-

Trail Holds Two Goal Lead Over Blairmore in Allan Cup Playdown

ALBERTA HOCKEY CHAMPIONS BEATEN 3-1 IN FIRST GAME

Jim Kemp Scores Lone Blairmore Goal — Smoke-Eaters Count Two in Second Period — Second Game Tonight at Trail

TRAIL, B. C., March 12 — Trail Smoke-Eaters, amateur hockey champions of British Columbia, defeated Blairmore, Alberta title-holders, 3 to 1, in the first contest of a two-game series in the Allan Cup play-downs here last night. It was a closely fought contest with a decided edge in the second period where the Smoke-Eaters the victory. The first and third periods were fought on even terms, but in the middle frame, the British Columbian scored twice without reply from their opponents.

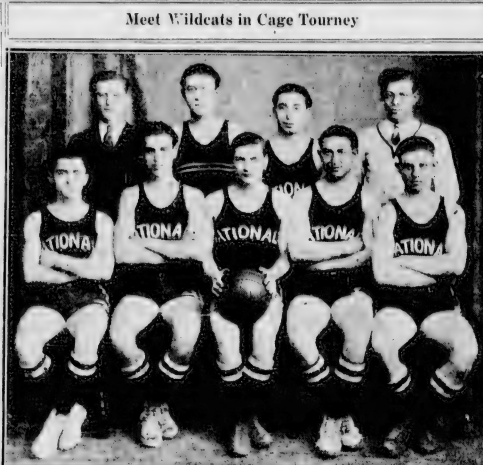

REMY AND FARLAND WERE HARD TO FOUL

With the opening of the first session the Alberta coast right back. A superb trail offense, however, kept the visitors at bay until the period was closed. Remy and Farland were hard to foul. The first goal was scored by the Smoke-Eaters in the second period.
